

The Contributors

Christopher Joseph An earned his MA in Philosophy at the Ateneo de Manila University in 2018 with a thesis on “Learning to Have the World in View: Participatory Play and Joint Attention in The Transformational View of Human Development.” <cjan.phil@gmail.com>

Peter-Paul Perez Blanco has a Masters degree in Philosophy from Ateneo de Manila University. He belongs to the Blanco family of Painters of Angono, Rizal and has exhibited his paintings, along with his family, in many cities around the world. <blancopeterpaul@yahoo.com>

Marella Ada Mancenido-Bolanos earned her PhD in Philosophy at the University of Sto. Tomas in 2017 with a dissertation on “Mathew Lipman’s Philosophy for Children and its Place in the Philippine Curriculum.” <marella_ada@yahoo.com>

Roque J. Ferriols, SJ is Professor Emeritus at Ateneo de Manila University. He received the Tanglaw ng Lahi Award from Ateneo de Manila University in 1989, the National Book Awards from the Manila Critics Circle in 1991, 1995, 1999 and 2017, the Catholic Authors Awards in 2001, The Bato Balani Teachers Award in 2007, the Parangal Dangal ng Wika (Dignity of Language Award) by the Komisyon sa Wilang Filipino (Commission on Filipino Language) in 2014 and the National Book Award by the National Book Development Board in 2017. <lgarcia@ateneo.edu>

Zosimo Lee is Professor of Philosophy at the University of the Philippines in Diliman where he also served as Dean of the College of Social Sciences and Philosophy at UP Diliman. He earned his PhD at the State University of New York in Buffalo with a dissertation on John Rawl's Theory of Justice in 1990. He pioneered the teaching of philosophy for Children in the Philippines by involving UP teachers in handling training programs with public school teachers, eventually incorporating Philosophy for Children in the undergraduate and graduate curriculum, as well as training public school teachers themselves in different areas of the Philippines through the Teacher Training Institute of the Ayala Foundation. <zosimolee@gmail.com>

Stephan Millett - Professor Stephan Millett is a moral philosopher and teacher of ethics with scholarly publications in applied and professional ethics, education and metaphysics. In addition to his later career as a University-based ethics specialist, for seven years he also taught Philosophy to children aged five to 17 in an Australian school as his full-time job. With a reference group of fellow philosophers, he wrote the Philosophy and Ethics upper school curriculum for the state of Western Australia, and co-authored four textbooks for that course. His book, Aristotle's Powers and Responsibility for Nature, was published by Peter Lang in 2011. He is known internationally for his work with Philosophy in schools and presented to the 2009 high-level UNESCO meeting on Teaching Philosophy in Asia and the Pacific, held in Manila. <stephanmillet@gmail.com>

Rowena Azada-Palacios is an Assistant Professor of Philosophy at Ateneo de Manila University. She is currently pursuing doctoral studies in Philosophy of Education at the UCL-Institute of Education, University College London. <razada@ateneo.edu>

Farzaneh Shahrtash is an independent educator who sometimes works as a researcher and consultant with the Ministry of Education in Iran for many areas during the past 32 years. She is also a Children's Book publisher, author and translator. She earned her doctorate in Philosophy from Geongsang National University in South Korea. <fshahrtash@gmail.com>